House of Representatives U. S.
Washington, D. C.

Dec. 26, 1911.

Hon. James L. Davenport,
Commissioner of Pensions,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Davenport:

I enclose a letter from Miss Nellie A. Tracy, of 15 Curtis St., West Somerville, Mass., with regard to nine days' pension, $18.00, due her father, Charles H. Tracy, at the date of his death, September 12, 1911. It appears that Miss Tracy has acted virtually as nurse for her father, and as a matter of ordinary justice it seems as though this slight residue should go to her. Is there any authority under the law by which she could be entitled to it?

Respectfully,

S. W. McCall
