THE GRAIN CROP OF 1854.

There is an idea abroad that the small grain of this year has been abundant, and that it is not to be found so much as the evidence indicates.

Table with 2 columns: Category and Amount. Includes Domestic consumption, Consumpt. of increased inhabit., Aggregate demand, etc.

The census crop was that of 1849, in which Ohio had not much over half a crop, and there was some deficiency in other states.

By no means wish to excite speculation by depreciating the amount of grain in the country, but it certainly can be of no benefit.

He was once arraigned for horse stealing, and it was supposed that he was connected with an extensive gang which was laying contributions upon the stables round about.

"I shall be faithful to my word," said he; "I understand, then, that the devil is the only accomplice I ever had; we have been a great while in partnership; you have acquitted me, and you may hang him, if you can catch him."

No under-crust should be made to ripple or any fruit-pie. It is always heavy and not fit to eat.

SINGULAR CASE OF INSTINCT IN A HORSE.

We do not remember ever to have heard of a more remarkable exhibition of equine intelligence than the one which follows.

Not much time had elapsed before the sound of approaching horses' feet attracted his attention, and a moment after, one of his horses appeared at the door.

DYING SELDOM A VERY PAINFUL PROCESS.

According to my observation, the mere act of dying is seldom in any sense of the word, a very painful process.

A good story is told of George White, a notorious thief, in Worcester county, Mass. He was once arraigned for horse stealing,
